EASLEY APPOINTS NIXON TO BUILDING CODE COUNCIL

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Mack Eugene Nixon of Hertford to the North Carolina Building Code Council.

Nixon is a building contractor and developer. He serves on the Perquimans County Board of Commissioners, where he was chairman for four years. Nixon is an appointed member of the Albemarle Regional Health Board, Northeastern Regional Economic Development Partnership and chairman of the Perquimans County Economic Development Commission. Previously, Nixon was elected to the Perquimans County Board of Education for eight years.

The council prepares and adopts criteria in accordance with the North Carolina building code. There are 17 members on the council, each serving a 6-year term. The governor appoints all members.
